YOUR DOCTOR AND YOU

How to get a doctor in an emergency

Who knows when sudden illness or an accident may strike and you need a doctor in a hurry?

Your best assurance of getting quick and adequate medical care in an emergency is to select a family doctor before you need him. Critical minutes may slip by if you don't know whom to call . . . where to call . . . when every moment counts. A family doctor of your own can give you the kind of protective care you expect from a competent physician and a trusted friend. If he is not in his office, his telephone answering service knows where to reach him immediately; or, if he is out of the city, he arranges with another physician to serve his patients' needs in his absence. So keep your doctor's phone number where every member of you; But if you are a stranger in the city and need immediate medical attention, you can contact a doctor quickly by calling:

Ask Aunt Annie

Dear Aunt Annie:

My husband flipped last night. We got another bill for repairing our air conditioner. We get a big repair bill almost every month. My husband gets madder and madder, and last night he said an ugly word. ("Criminently!") What can I do to calm him down?

Signed, ALWAYS BROKE -0-

Dear ALWAYS:

Your problem is common, but easy to solve. Just get an Arkla Sun Valley NATURAL GAS Air Conditioner and you and your husband will both calm down. The Arkla has no moving parts in the cooling and heating cycles. That means little or no maintenance expense for years and years. Your fuel bill will be lower, too, because you can get gas for air conditioning at a stomp-down low rate. Ask your local Gas District office about this. . . Ask them about NATURAL GAS Water Heating, too. It's another way to save money while you live better. It will pay you to get to know those Gas District folks. No kidding. Signed, AUNT ANNIE
